“Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat” at Theatre in the Park July 15-17, 20-23;
Community Quilt & sign language part of production

“Go, Go. Go Joseph, You know what they say!”

Joseph and his band of 11 brothers will rock the stage at Theatre in the Park with the energetic musical “JOSEPH AND THE AMAZING TECHNICOLOR DREAMCOAT” opening Friday night, July 15. The musical runs through Sunday, July 17, and then continues its run Wednesday, July 20 through Saturday, July 23. The box office opens at 6 p.m. and the gates to the seating bowl open at 6:30 p.m.; the show begins at 8:30 p.m. “JOSEPH” is rated G and is appropriate for the entire family to enjoy.

For “JOSEPH” TTIP is partnering with Giving the Basics collecting personal care items to serve those most in need. Those who donate an item such as toothpaste, deodorant, soap or shampoo when they come to the theatre will receive a coupon for free popcorn.

Under the direction of first-time TTIP Director/Choreographer Guy Gardner, “JOSEPH” features the largest all-local cast of the season with a 66-member children’s chorus. There are also several families performing together in this production. James Levy is vocal director/conductor.

“The children's chorus are all paired up with adult cast members in a mentoring type program to further the connection cast members get in theatre,” Gardner said.

With music and lyrics by Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice, “JOSEPH” tells the story of Joseph from the Bible's Book of Genesis. A group of narrators tell the tale of Joseph, the favorite son of the patriarch Jacob. Joseph has vivid dreams that foretell the future, and his older brothers are jealous of their sibling’s talent. In this musical filled with hilarious songs and colorful dance numbers, Joseph finds himself sold into slavery and later imprisoned for sharing his vivid tales. Joseph regales Pharaoh by interpreting his dreams – a task that earns Joseph his freedom. Finally, with his colorful coat, Joseph rises above it all.

Gardner and his team have added another special element to this production of “JOSEPH”; one of the songs will be performed in American Sign Language.

“We want all dreams to be heard, whether you're seven or 70. Everyone has dreams, so we included the sign language in the opening and closing number, with ‘Any Dream Will Do,’ to share this message with others,” Gardner said.

CONSTRUCTING A COMMUNITY QUILT

The cast, crew, and staff of “JOSEPH” are teaming up to make a Community Dream Quilt that will be on display during all performances of the show.

“A huge theme of the show is ‘Any Dream Will Do’ and we want our audiences to enjoy looking at those dreams,” Gardner said.

The quilt, which matches the design for Joseph’s Coat in the show, will have more than 100 hand-designed dream patches showing some of the dreams of those involved with the production.

This is Theatre in the Park’s (TTIP) 47th season of musical entertainment featuring talent from all over the Kansas City metropolitan area. The TTIP season concludes with everyone’s favorite nanny MARY POPPINS, a co-production that will play under the stars at TTIP and on stage at the White Theatre at the Jewish Community Center. “MARY POPPINS” opens at TTIP beginning July 29 through July 31, and Aug. 3-6 after its run at the White Theatre that starts on July 9.

TTIP is holding the line on prices for the 2016 season with general admission only $8, youth $6, and children three and under may attend for free (but require a ticket for entrance).
