DIRECTORS NOTES

"Don't you know what's out there in the world... witches can be right, giants can be good, you decide what's right, you decide what's good." So goes the world of Stephen Sondheim and James Lapine in this story about wishes.

Act I—A fairy tale where familiar childhood characters gain individual wishes and live happily ever after.

Act II—These characters must now face real world challenges and accept the consequences of their previous wishes.

As these characters travel into the woods, their journey is no different than we begin our own adventures through life. We all are somewhat naive in believing that we too can be home before dark. However, we soon discover that if we deny our predicaments and escape to our storybook, our only home becomes the dark. It is during these times that we attempt to make our wishes come true, and we are reminded that real wishes are children.

We hope you enjoy your journey with us this evening and may you live happily ever after.

I WISH...
