The Shawnee City Council on Monday night agreed to amend its city ordinances to allow the Johnson County Parks and Recreation District to sell alcohol at Theatre in the Park at Shawnee Mission Park.

The action was taken at the request of the parks district, which plans to allow organizations that rent the pavilion at Theatre in the Park to serve alcohol, said Jill Geller, the district's superintendent of recreation. No alcohol has been served at the facility in the past, she added.

Council action was required because a city ordinance prohibits the consumption of alcohol on public property.

Voting against the action was

What could be better than a family campout right here in Johnson County? Whether you are an experienced camper or just looking for an activity to share with your family, this is your opportunity to sleep under the stars in the safety of the largest park in Johnson County. In 2011 you will have two opportunities to spend the night under the stars in Shawnee Mission Park and enjoy a great production at the Theatre in the Park.

The package includes passes to Shawnee Mission Park Beach, pedal boat rental and tickets to The Theatre in the Park's production of "The Sound of Music" and/or "Seussical." As a special bonus you will receive early admittance to the shows. Campers will need to bring their own camping equipment (tents, sleeping bags, etc.). Saturday evening dinner is not provided. Donuts, juice, and milk will be provided Sunday morning.
